

Book Presentation: Developing Confirmation Work in Europe

Monday, 25 November 2024, 16.00 - 19.00 h (CET)

Book presentation and online conference, based on the results of the third international study on confirmation work.

In October 2024 the book publication on the third international study on confirmation work will be available in an open access format (see www.confirmation-research.eu). The research team behind the publication presents the book and its results during this online conference. Everyone is invited to the Zoom meeting, which will be held in English.

You can expect:

- A presentation of interesting results from the third international study
- Insights and impulses on practical confirmation work from nine European countries
- Connecting with researchers, practitioners, church leaders and students from the field of confirmation work

The presentation includes two timeslots for interactive workshops on central results and perspectives for the practical work. The titles of the workshops will be announced some weeks before on our website.

See www.confirmation-research.eu for the latest updates of the program.
